HEALTH NOTE

“Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own.” (1 Corinthians 6:19, NIV)

What I want you to learn is this: My body belongs to God and I am to honor Him in how I treat it.

There were people in Corinth, which was a pagan city. They had begun to think about the human body the same way Greeks thought about it. They felt the body was not important. Their philosophy was, “God doesn’t care about my body; He only cares about my spirit. After all the body is going to die anyway so I can do anything with my body I want to.” In other words, it was the old, “If it feels good, do it” philosophy. By the way, that is the same mentality that says, “It is alright to pollute the air, trash the land, and dirty the water, because it is all going up in smoke anyway.” It is a way of thinking that is wrong.

I want all of us to see our bodies in a completely different way than perhaps we ever have before, because how you see your body will determine how you treat your body. Whether or not you ignore your body or adore your body is not a physical issue, but a spiritual issue. When God looks at your body He doesn’t primarily see flesh and bones, hair and teeth, eyes, feet, and hands. When God looks at your body, He sees a temple where He lives. Your body is meant to be the temple of the Holy Spirit.
